

NAME: DATE:
 CLASS: MARK: ____/100

(Time: 50 minutes)

Vocabulary and Grammar

A. Fill in: estimated, wandering, opening, opportunity, crowded, bumpy, reputation, volunteers, condition, crept.

- 1 The play's night was a huge success.
- 2 I had the to go to Paris and study.
- 3 The thief around the house without making a noise.
- 4 The company has a for high-quality service.
- 5 Her fortune was recently at £37 million.
- 6 By 10 am, the city streets were noisy and
- 7 Driving over the road made her feel quite sick.
- 8 We spent the entire day around the zoo.
- 9 Two of the burns victims were still in critical last night.
- 10 Mike Maxwell at a shelter for the homeless.

(Points: ____
10×2 20)

B. Complete the phrases with the following words: tight, heart, package, rough, exchange.

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 deal 2 budget 3 seas | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4 programme 5 defect |
|--|---|

(Points: ____
5×2 10)

C. Fill in: off (x2), with, for, on.

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Nancy is very keen playing tennis. 2 Jamaica is famous its beaches and warm climate. 3 The plane took on time and we arrived in London at 2:30. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4 She is obsessed her weight and keeping fit. 5 When I left for Europe, Tony came to see me at the airport. |
|---|--|

(Points: ____
5×2 10)

D. Join the sentences. Use relatives.

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 John is my cousin. He is a magician. 2 York is a city. It is in the north of England. 3 Mark Jacobs is the author. His book became a best seller. | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4 Dennis is going to Paris. He will visit the Eiffel Tower there. 5 This is the piano. He bought it at an auction. |
|---|---|

(Points: ____
5×4 20)

E. Read the text and complete gaps 1-7 with the correct form and tense of each verb in capitals.

A Once-in-a-lifetime Opportunity

Dogs have been man's best friends for centuries. Even today, they
1) just companions, but also the only means of travel for many people who live in the Arctic. In parts of Greenland, for instance, dog sledding still 2) a major role in people's lives as an essential mode of transport during the winter and spring.

Although dog sledding 3) hundreds of years ago and was used for hunting and travel, today it is mainly used to promote tourism, especially through sled tours. Dog sledding is one of the best ways for visitors to enjoy the amazing arctic scenery. Most people may 4) about dog sledding, but actually experiencing it is completely different. In fact, many countries in the Arctic Circle
5) dog sled tours for decades. Some of them include catching a glimpse of icebergs and glaciers by day, and 6)
 in tents on the sea ice at night.

A visit to the Arctic region is a life-long dream for many travellers. Dog sledding tours have a thrill and excitement that is incomparable to other adventure holidays. Without a doubt, dog sledding 7) to fascinate tourists in the future.

NOT BE

PLAY

DEVELOP

READ

ORGANISE

SLEEP

CONTINUE

(Points: _____
 7×2 14)

F. Read the text and complete gaps 1-6 with the correct derivative of each word in capitals.

Underwater Hockey

Underwater hockey, or Octopush, is a fast-paced 1) sport played at the bottom of a swimming pool. It was invented by divers in England and it is 2) becoming a sport that is drawing a lot of attention. Players wear a diving mask, fins, 3) gloves and a snorkel. Playing underwater hockey is quite challenging. The object of the game is to use a small stick to push the puck into a tray which acts as the opponents' goal. Knowing when to dive and when to return to the surface for air is part of the game's strategy. Although there are ten
4) in each team, only six are allowed in the water. As a result, player substitutions can happen at any time, increasing the speed and 5) of the game. Underwater hockey is growing in
6) and is a very exciting team water sport.

COMPETE

QUICK

PROTECT

PLAY

EXCITE

POPULAR

(Points: _____
 6×2 12)

G. Read the text. For gaps 1-7, choose A, B, C or D to complete each gap correctly.

Working towards a Dream

Most of us have fantasised about meeting our favourite actor, and I'm no different. Although I'm still in high school, I often dream of making films in New York City alongside one of Hollywood's superstars. I also have a 1) for being quite ambitious and I guess that's one of the reasons why I joined the school's drama club. The drama club taught me a great deal about theatrical productions and has also 2) wonders for my acting skills. Our school has a long tradition in drama and theatrical performances. In fact, our drama club works together with professional theatre companies that 3) workshops for our drama students. Last year, our school staged Oliver Twist and I was Nancy. Performing in front of a live audience is one of the most intense feelings I have 4) experienced in my life. This year our annual school production will be Romeo and Juliet and I will play the 5) of Juliet! Performing Shakespeare is not easy, especially Romeo and Juliet which is 6) in Italy in the 1500s. Nevertheless, we are all extremely excited as we know that the 7) will be packed with people! I don't expect to become a star overnight, of course, but I do hope we keep the audience entertained and amused!

- | | | | |
|--------------|--------------|-----------|-------------|
| 1 A fame | B reputation | C renown | D character |
| 2 A achieved | B expressed | C made | D worked |
| 3 A function | B attend | C run | D find |
| 4 A ever | B often | C never | D always |
| 5 A person | B actor | C part | D portrayal |
| 6 A set | B placed | C put | D located |
| 7 A stage | B auditorium | C setting | D audience |

(Points: _____
7×2 14)

NAME:	DATE:
CLASS:	MARK: _____/50
(Time: 50 minutes)

Reading

H. You are going to read an article. For statements 1-7, choose A, B, C or D to complete each statement correctly.

The Wonder of Bollywood

'Hollywood' is a household name. This small district of Los Angeles, California is the centre of the American film industry and the reason for the sale of over 2.6 billion cinema tickets every year. Most of the films we watch, whether they are blockbuster action films or low-budget dramas, come straight out of Hollywood. But have you ever heard of 'Bollywood'? 'Bollywood' is the name given to the Hindi language film industry based in Mumbai, India. Contrary to popular belief, it far outperforms Hollywood. Last year alone, over 1000 films were produced and 4 billion cinema tickets were sold, showing that Indian cinema is far more powerful than people think.

Many likely Bollywood fans are often concerned that they will not be able to understand the language used in the films. But there is no need to worry. Although the scripts have historically been written in Hindi, more and more films use the English language, showing India's respect for the languages that make up its culture. You will also find that most films come with English language subtitles. The 'language barrier' shouldn't stop a viewer from enjoying some first-class films.

So what do you get out of a Bollywood film? It is very difficult to define a film as belonging to a certain category, because there is no such thing as a typical Bollywood film. Indians tend to describe the films by using the Hindustani word, 'Masala' (meaning 'spice mixture'). The plots sometimes focus on the drama of a love triangle, but they can also be packed with laugh-out-loud comedy or edge-of-your-seat action. The only guarantee is that a Bollywood film won't end without several catchy songs and dance routines.

Many Bollywood films are over three hours long. Some people might think that this is too long, but there is a good explanation. You would be forgiven for thinking it's due to complicated storylines, but the film companies say it's far simpler than that. They say the aim is not to draw in bigger audiences, but to give you, the audience, your 'money's worth'. If you are going to spend good money on a ticket, the film should be exciting, funny, scary, dramatic, musical... Anything you want!

As in Hollywood, there is no shortage of aspiring young actors and actresses hoping to get a role in the next blockbuster. They set off to Mumbai with dreams of becoming stars. Big shot film producers and casting agents are always looking out for new talent. Of course, the vast majority never 'make it big', but there are a few exceptions. India has its own Brad Pitts and Angelina Jolies – spectacular actors who make up all-star casts and ensure you have a truly enjoyable viewing experience!

Shilpa Shetty is the perfect example of a Bollywood megastar. A picture of beauty and raw acting talent, she has achieved success beyond the borders of India, most notably in the UK following her appearance on the 'Celebrity Big Brother' TV series. Since then she has turned down roles in several British TV shows. Instead, she has returned to Mumbai and continues to shoot films in the land that made her a star.

Bollywood is not just for the Indian audience. Although it took a long time to become popular in other countries, Bollywood is hugely popular in Russia and Eastern Europe. And although audience numbers in Western Europe and the Americas are only now growing, it has already taken Africa and Asia by storm. As world cinema changes, don't get left behind. Once you get into Bollywood, you'll never want to stop watching.

Line 23

